Name:

Project Due Date: Thursday, 11/21/2019

You will Create a pictorial timeline of significant events in the American Revolution AND choose one of the following:

- A. Research medicine in the American Revolution. Then, create a first aid kit and informational booklet.
- B. Create trading cards for important figures in the American Revolution.
- C. Create a presentation that teaches the class about a topic in the Revolutionary War.
- D. Create an interactive poster showing the roles played by specific groups in the American Revolution.

Required Pictorial Timeline:

Create a pictorial timeline for the below events that occurred in the American Revolution. You may make this on the computer using either clip art or images of the internet (must be cited), or you can make it on paper with hand-drawn images. YOU MAY NOT COMPLETE THIS ON NOTEBOOK PAPER.

Events: (They need to be put in the correct order, and you must include the dates. Use the internet/textbook to find the dates.)

1. Shots fired at Lexington and Concord, MA to begin the American Revolution.
2. The terrible winter at Valley Forge, PA, where Washington's men became a fighting machine.
3. The Declaration of Independence was signed, formally severing political and economic ties between America and Great Britain.
4. The Battle of Bunker Hill: a famous battle in the American Revolution
5. The Battle of Cowpens- a Patriot victory that pushes the British out of SC
6. The Treaty of Paris was signed, officially ending the American Revolution, as well as changing the boundaries of America and the other British colonies.
7. The Battle of Camden, which should have been a Patriot victory, was a British victory. This led to the French not sending supplies and reinforcements as early as they had intended.
8. The Battle of Eutaw Springs: Last major battle in SC; British tactical victory, Patriot strategic advantage; the British were cut off from their major cities and the couldn't stop the movement of supplies
9. The Battle of Yorktown, a Patriot victory, became the last battle of the War; General Cornwallis surrendered to George Washington.
10. The Battle of King's Mountain is the first major Patriot victory in the South, making it the turning point battle of the War.
